

Mölur has fine horns and vigorous head, muscular shoulders and good conformation. Back and loins are very muscular as the thighs also are. feet are right and particularly well placed.

Wool

Good wool quantity and appearance but with tan fibers all over the fleece. No black fibers were found. Much of rather coarse thog.

Results

Mölur was progeny tested at Hestur Experimental Farm in 1996 and result was following: He was evaluated in 1996 and garnered a point score of 82.5 points.

His eye muscles thickness was measured in 1996 at 29 mm, and the back fat at 3 mm.

Good carcass results.

Leanness BLUP comes in at 102, muscling 102 so the carcass composite is also 102

Color: White, carrying moorit and solid pattern.