

Morró is moorit with fine horns. Born 1998. The head is powerful, neck and shoulders well muscled and conformation average. Back muscling quite good, loins long and muscled but not broad. Thigh muscle well shaped but not deep. Morró is a well built moorit sheep. Medium quantity of moorit wool; the tog has a greyish tint. Morro carries spotting, as well.